Petitioner would like to reflect on the Courts of Appeal RESPONDS. Quotes: Although the rights of CONFRONTATION includes the right to cross EXAMINE adverse witness ON MATTERS REFLECTING ON THEIR CREDIBILITY AND TRIAL JUDGEMENTS RETAINS wide latitude insofar as the CONFRONTATION CLAUSE.
also Quote: The People do not argue that Cunningham's failure to raise his Constitutional claims at trial constitutes a forfeiture of those claims on appeal. Therefore, we do not consider the issues. However, we note that in People v. Partida (2005) 37 Cal. 4th 428, 435, the California Supreme Court held that a defendant who failed to assert the Constitutional basis for his Evidence Code section 352
Evidentiary objection at trial could never the less, argue

Ground 1 (Argument 1)

Petitioner was deprived of his Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendment right when his appellate counsel failed to raise an arguable issue on direct appeal that the trial court erred by instructing the jury on CalJic 2.02 and erred in failing to instruct the jury on CalJic 2.01 jury instruction.

Supporting facts:

Petitioner contends that he was denied his Constitutional right to effective assistance of counsel and deprived of due process of the law when his appellate counsel should have raised an arguable issue on direct appeal that the trial court erred by instructing the jury on CalJic 2.02 Sufficiency of Circumstantial Evidence to prove specific intent or mental state and erred in failing to instruct the jury on CalJic 2.01 Sufficiency of Circumstantial Evidence.

Petitioner notes that he was charged in Count 1 Residential Burglary Pen C§ 459 and 460. Count 2 charged Assault with a firearm Pen C§ 245(a)(2). Count 3 charged Possession of a firearm by a felon Pen C§ 12021(a)(1) and Count 4 charged Possession of a deadly weapon Pen C§ 12020. Both Counts 1 and 2 alleged a personal use of a firearm enhancement.

-) Petitioner was deprived of his Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendment rights when he was denied the effective assistance of counsel on direct appeal
-) because his appellate counsel was incompetent and ineffective when she failed to raise substantial allegations of error on direct appeal that arguably might have resulted in reversal

) Petitioner contends that he was denied his Constitutional right to effective assistance of counsel and deprived of due process of the law when his appellate counsel was ineffective for failing to raise substantial assignments of error, that

-) petitioner has set forth in Ground 1
-) that arguably might have resulted in reversal of his convictions.

) On September 15, 2004, a Four Count information was filed charging Defendant/Petitioner, James A. Cunningham (petitioner) with offenses occurring in San Diego County. Count 1 charged petitioner with first degree burglary of an inhabited dwelling in violation of Pen C§ 459 and 460. Count 2 charged petitioner with Assault with a firearm in violation of Pen C§ 245(a)(2). Count 3 charged
